Summary: On March 14, 2017 the Department posted a call for 2 assistant professors, with an application deadline on 8 May 2017. We received 11 valid applications. Each application was initially evaluated by a member of the hiring committee to determine a short list of candidates to interview by the hiring committee. Here is the list of applicants.

- OMISSIS
- Mara Squicciarini
- OMISSIS
- Christoph Wolf

OMISSIS

Mara Squicciarini is an accomplished economic historian and political economist who recently finished her post-doc period in a leading world institution (Northwestern). JMP entitled Devotion and Development: Religiosity, Education, and Economic Progress in 19th-Century France

OMISSIS

Christoph Wolf is an excellent theorist and applied theorists who recently finished his PhD from a leading European institution (Mannheim). JMP entitled Informative Milestones in Experimentation

We shortlisted 2 candidates and both were invited for campus flyouts.

They were:

- Mara Squicciarini
- Christoph Wolf

Offers were made to both Mara Squicciarini and Christoph Wolf.

Mara Squicciarini

The department evaluated very favorably the research and prospects of Mara Squicciarini and enthusiastically decided to offer a position to this candidate. After extended negotiations Mara accepted Bocconi's offer.

Christoph Wolf.

The department evaluated very favorably the research and prospects of Christoph Wolf and enthusiastically decided to offer a position to this candidate. After some negotiation Christoph accepted Bocconi's offer.

In conclusion, we received 11 applications and secured 2 hires: Mara Squicciarini and Christoph Wolf. We therefore request to close this call with both positions filled.

Sincerely,

Nicola Pavoni

(on behalf of the Hiring Committee)
